

MIDWEST
REGIONAL BANK

MIDWEST REGIONAL BANK PROMOTES DREW HORN TO SENIOR VICE-PRESIDENT OF CREDIT ADMINISTRATION

Clayton, Missouri – Midwest Regional Bank is pleased to announce the promotion of Drew Horn to Senior Vice President of Credit Administration. Horn's extensive expertise, strategic insight, and dedication have been instrumental in driving the bank's consistent growth and strengthening its reputation in the financial sector.

Drew joined Midwest Regional Bank as an intern in 2012 and has since advanced through various key roles, including credit analyst, credit manager, portfolio manager, and most recently, Vice President of Credit Administration. Under his leadership, the Credit Administration department has earned a strong reputation for its analytical strength and strategic planning.

Mr. Horn holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration (BSBA) from the University of Missouri–St. Louis. In July 2023, he completed an advanced degree from the Graduate School of Banking at Colorado. Originally from Crystal City, Drew is married with two sons and now lives in South St. Louis County.

Midwest Regional Bank, headquartered in Clayton, Missouri, is a full-service institution with over $1 billion in assets. Since its founding in 1894, the bank has expanded its footprint across Missouri with Full-Service Branches in Festus, Kirkwood, Arnold, Chesterfield, Sunset Hills, Clayton, and Otterville. Additionally, it operates Limited-Service Loan Production offices in Colorado, Arizona, Tennessee, Texas, and Florida.

For more information, visit www.mwrbank.com.

Member
FDIC

